

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Honolulu Cricket Club has a vote of thanks in this issue.

A number of the Cook's tourists visited Ewa plantation yesterday. The sale of chairs at the circus tent has been postponed until Wednesday.

Some very elegant garments are offered for sale by Miss Killeen at J. J. Egan's.

The stockholders in the Ewa Plantation Co. received a two per cent. dividend yesterday.

Honolulu Royal Arch Chapter, No. 1, meets this evening at 7:30. Work in the Mark Master Degree.

Mrs. J. O. Dominis went to Pearl City yesterday by the 9:15 train and drove from there to Waiialua.

On account of the rain last night keeping away a great number of the members, the H. A. A. C. held no meeting.

Professor James W. Price, the aeronaut, has joined the Wirth Circus Company and will leave with it for Japan.

The ladies of Lihue, Kauai, have formed a reading club, which will hold weekly meetings at the homes of various members.

W. S. Luce will sell at public auction on Wednesday all the stock of watches and jewelry belonging to Thomas Lindsay.

Henry Vierra is no longer connected with the Telephone Exchange. He will again take up his duties with the Road Board.

A partition around that portion of the hall in the Executive building occupied by the Senate was placed in position yesterday.

Charles David offers a thoroughbred horse for sale. Particulars may be obtained from Mr. David at the Kapiolani Park track.

Through the kindness of the Foreign Office the Hawaiian band will play at the circus tent tonight on the occasion of the benefit to the Kapiolani Maternity Home and the Y. H. I.

The entire issue of yesterday's ADVERTISER having been exhausted an extra number of the semi-weekly GAZETTE, out today will be printed. It will contain a vast amount of interesting news.

A general meeting of the Myrtle Boat Club will be held in the boat house at 7:30 o'clock this evening. A large attendance is requested, since matters of great interest to the club will be dealt with.

Senator Baldwin has given orders for plans to be drawn for the reconstruction of the native church near Lahaina, where his father once preached. As much of the old stone work will be used in the new edifice as possible.

Minister Willis called at the Foreign Office yesterday with Captain Pigman of the Bennington and Commander Watson of the Adams and arranged with Minister Cooper for an official call on President Dole at 11 o'clock today.

Dr. Y. S. Sun, the prominent Chinese doctor, lectured again before the Chinese-English Debating Society last Friday evening. His remarks were confined to the digestive apparatus. A large number were present at the lecture.

The Appropriation bill will come up in the Senate today and the second reading probably completed. The opium bill and the bill for appropriations from current accounts will probably be reported by the Printing Committee.

Tenders for supplies to the commissary department were opened yesterday, but have not yet been awarded. In the samples of milk furnished the percentage of cream varied from 9 to 11 and the cheapest milk had the highest percentage of cream.

A lady riding out on a Beretania street car yesterday afternoon hearing a rumbling noise asked a gentleman sitting next if it was thunder. When told that it was, she jumped from her seat with the remark "Oh thunder! I can't stand that," and left the car.

George McLeod of the Metropolitan Meat Co. has inaugurated a scheme to reduce the number of telephone calls. He has had blanks printed with lines for each day of the week. These may be filled up and sent to the office and the orders filled from it.

Just during the busy part of yesterday afternoon, when everything was moving along on Fort street, a heavy shower came down. It was somewhat amusing to watch all classes of people plastered up against the walls trying to keep out of the driving rain.

The heavy rainstorm in Manoa on Sunday was somewhat phenomenal. The wind was from the south, but heavy clouds came over the mountains evidently through the aid of a trade wind in the upper current. Directly they crossed the mountain the rain fell in torrents.

The services at the Christian Church last night were well attended, notwithstanding the inclement weather. The theme for tonight will be "The Three Dispensations," and will be illustrated by a large pictorial chart.

George Bruns, of the Mutual Telephone Co., had rather a bad accident yesterday. While driving to the Telephone Exchange on Merchant street his horse took fright, and starting to run away threw him out in the mud. Aside from an injured leg and a few bruises George is all right.
